From left: RHHIF Chair Jack Mayo and THOR Chair Jack Selway share an intense passion for Rotary history and a willingness to put their time and personal resources into fulfilling their vision for Rotary. This pair of Jacks, and their respective organizations, help inform Rotarians about the heritage of our Rotary movement.

Help build the history fellowship's future

1. Encourage your club to appoint a Club Historian
2. Encourage your district to appoint a District Historian.
3. Invite Rotary friends to join this fellowship. (See "count me in" page 2)
4. Use our DVD or videotape as a meeting program, during club officers team building retreat, and as part of a new member orientation session.
5. Nominate eligible Rotarians for our Hall of Fame honoring those who have been committed to the ideals of Rotary for 50 years or more. Our booth in the Centennial Convention's House of Friendship in Chicago is expected to display the names of these Hall of Fame Rotarians. (Hall of Fame nomination form appears on page 2.)

Bringing friends into this fellowship is an essential first step toward preserving the heritage of our Rotary movement .

First There Was One: Rotary One (updated, digitized and re-mastered)

You may have seen it during a Rotary International Convention. Now you can show your own club, district, and zone the 2003-updated re-master of Norm Kloker's acclaimed Rotary history production that premiered as a dazzling multi-projector multimedia show during 1980's 75th Anniversary celebration. This introduction to our service club movement's history and heritage is ideal for new member orientation programs, and as a discussion-starter at PETS. A brief description of a 1906 social as remembered by the widow of a Rotary pioneer is especially effective in transporting the viewer back in time. Order with the coupon below.
