

Photos confirm the stories that Paul's house was our house, a place where Rotarians gathered for committee meetings in his basement and fellowship upstairs.

My club will help SAVE the home of Paul Harris so Rotarians can resume meeting there.

Name: _____

Address: _____

Phone: _____ Fax: _____ E-mail: _____

Rotary Club _____ District _____

Rotary Offices Held: _____

My club is proud to put our club name on the Sponsoring Clubs wall inside the home of Paul Harris giving us the opportunity to award each participating club member a distinctive keepsake with certificate of authenticity. The enclosed check (payable to Rotary District 6360 Foundation) makes us a Paul and Jean Harris Home Foundation sponsoring club.

$1000 Harris Home Sponsoring Club benefits (payment due 1 July 2004)

- ✂✂ Club's Centennial President receives a wall plaque (serial-numbered on the back) displaying a slice of wood harvested from a tree at the Paul Harris gravesite. Certificate of authenticity has the same serial number.
- ✂✂ Each club member in good standing is eligible to receive a Harris Home Foundation paperweight displaying sawdust from Paul Harris gravesite tree with certificate of authenticity. Order paperweights costing from $10 to $20 apiece.
- ✂✂ Club banner (the foot-tall size exchanged with visiting Rotarians) hung on the Sponsoring Clubs wall in the Paul Harris House
- ✂✂ Club members get complimentary admission to the home during visiting hours on a "space available" basis. [It might be necessary to limit the number of visitors during the Centennial Convention.]

$500 Harris Home Sponsoring Club benefits (payment due 1 July 2004)

- ✂✂ Club's Centennial President receives a wall plaque (serial-numbered on the back) displaying a slice of wood harvested from a tree at the Paul Harris gravesite. Certificate of authenticity has the same serial number.
- ✂✂ Each club member in good standing is eligible to receive a Harris Home Foundation paperweight displaying sawdust from Paul Harris gravesite tree with certificate of authenticity. Order paperweights costing from $10 to $20 apiece.
- ✂✂ Club name engraved on a special plaque on the Sponsoring Clubs wall in the Paul Harris House
- ✂✂ Club members get complimentary admission to the home during visiting hours on a "space available" basis. [It might be necessary to limit the number of visitors during the Centennial Convention.]

$250 Harris Home Sponsoring Club benefits (payment due 1 July 2004)

- ✂✂ Club's Centennial President receives a recognition certificate.
- ✂✂ Each club member in good standing is eligible to receive a Harris Home Foundation paperweight displaying sawdust from Paul Harris gravesite tree with certificate of authenticity. Order paperweights costing from $10 to $20 apiece.
- ✂✂ Club name engraved on a special plaque on the Sponsoring Clubs wall in the Paul Harris House
- ✂✂ Club members get complimentary admission to the home during visiting hours on a "space available" basis. [It might be necessary to limit the number of visitors during the Centennial Convention.]