Meanwhile, back at the House of Friendship...

Frank Bruno (far right) coordinated our fellowship booth in the 2005 RI Centennial Convention's House of Friendship. Among those helping Frank staff this year's fellowship chairman joins booth coordinator Frank Bruno in extending thanks to all who helped with both the booth and the fellowship breakfast, which was co-chaired by our fellowship Treasurer and Secretary, Stuart and Polly Smith.

THE ROTARY HISTORY AND HERITAGE INTERNATIONAL FELLOWSHIP HALL OF FAME

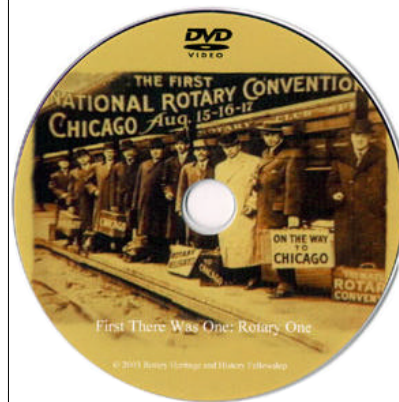

Recognize

*For Fifty Years of Service to Rotary:
Commitment to the Ideal of Service Above Self;
Dedication to the objective of Rotary;
And for contributing to its growth and development.*

Any RHHIF member in good standing may nominate an eligible Rotarian for the Hall of Fame. The $50 fee covers a framed certificate and shipping costs. Unless requested otherwise, the certificate is sent to the Nominator for presentation. The recipient then becomes a lifetime Hall of Fame Member of the Fellowship. A comprehensive list of Hall of Fame members will probably be on display at the Centennial Convention. Questions: call Polly Smith 815-877-4131 (Illinois) or email her at post28@juno.com

First There Was One: Rotary One (updated, digitized and re-mastered)

You may have seen it during a Rotary International Convention. Now you can show your club, district, and zone the updated re-master of Norm Kloker's acclaimed Rotary history production that premiered as a dazzling multi-projector multi-media show during 1980's 75th Anniversary celebration. This introduction to our service club movement's history and heritage is ideal for new member orientation programs, and as a discussion-starter at PETS. A brief description of a 1906 social as remembered by the widow of a Rotary pioneer is especially effective in transporting the viewer back in time. Order with the coupon below.
