

Help build your history fellowship's future

1. Encourage your club to appoint a Club Historian and your district to appoint a District Historian.
2. Invite friends to join this fellowship. (use "Count me in!" coupon below)
3. Use our 20-minute Rotary history DVD as a meeting program, during club officers retreats, and as part of a new member orientation session. (use "Here is $25 for the DVD" coupon below)
4. Nominate eligible Rotarians for the Heritage & History Hall of Fame honoring those who have been in Rotary for 50 years or more. Hall of Fame nomination form appears on page 3.)

Bringing friends into this fellowship is an essential first step toward preserving the heritage of our Rotary movement .

Rotary Heritage & History International Fellowship membership form

Count me in! I am ready to become a member of the Rotary Heritage & History International Fellowship and participate in its objective: to advocate and promote the collection and preservation of Rotary information and memorabilia related to the heritage and history of the Rotary movement; and to keep alive the fellowship and mutual friendships created by Paul Harris, Silvester Schiele, Hiram Shorey and Gus Loehr who first met in Room 711 of Chicago's Unity Building February 23, 1905; and exchange information about Rotary club, district and international heritage and history through the fellowship's publication SHARE ROTARY HERITAGE & HISTORY.

First There Was One: Rotary One

You may have seen it during a Rotary Convention. Now you can show your own club, district, and zone the updated re-master of Norm Kloker's acclaimed Rotary history production that premiered as a dazzling multi-projector multi-media show during Rotary's 75th Anniversary celebration.

This introduction to our service club movement's history and heritage is ideal for new member orientation programs, and as a discussion-starter at PETS. A brief description of a 1906 social as remembered by the widow of a Rotary pioneer is especially effective in transporting the viewer back in time. Order with the coupon below.
