

(left to right) Dave Groner and Jack Mayo greeted Rotarians at the fellowship's 2007 annual meeting in Salt Lake City.

Annual Fellowship Meeting in Salt Lake City

2005-2007 Fellowship Chairman Dave Groner convened the annual meeting at 5 pm Saturday June 14 in Salt Palace Convention Center room 251C. In addition to preservation opportunities in Wallingford Vermont, this fellowship's preservation activities at Comely Bank, the home of Paul & Jean Harris, remain on track. [see box on page 2]

Fellowship secretary Polly Smith brought the Rotary Heritage and History Hall of Fame album to Salt Lake City. It was displayed in our booth in the House of Friendship throughout the convention. The scrapbook will be displayed again during the 2008 Rotary International Convention in Los Angeles. Fellowship members should help their club president use this recognition to honor those who have been Rotarians for 50 years or more. Contact the newsletter editor for a Hall of Fame flier designed for use as a District Assembly hand-out; or request a sample district newsletter item about our Hall of Fame. [see page 2]

DG Bill Woulfin (D-6900) gave the annual meeting of the Rotary Heritage and History International Fellowship of Rotarians his plans for ceremonies opening Smithsonian's Whatever Happened to Polio? exhibit in Warm Springs Georgia.

Dr. Peter Salk with Ann Lee Hussey, chair of Polio Survivors & Associates, a Rotarian Action Group affiliated with RHHF.

Fellowship Treasurer Stuart Smith distributed his annual financial report, and a copy was subsequently filed with the RI Secretariat. With the pre-convention newsletter printing and postage and expenses associated with the fellowship's convention booth not yet reported, Stuart listed annual income of $2,225.00 and annual expenses of $1,581.97. Fellowship dues are US$20/year or 3 years for US$50.

D-6900's current and incoming governors Steve Stanfield (2006-2007) and Bill Woulfin (2007-2008) told fellowship members about Opening Day ceremonies at the Roosevelt Institute in Warm Springs, Georgia, for the Smithsonian's Whatever Happened to Polio? exhibit. (photo, page 4)

LA 2008
 ROTARY INTERNATIONAL
 CONVENTION - 15-18 JUNE
 LOS ANGELES - CALIFORNIA - USA

Be a Star!
REGISTER ONLINE

www.rotary.org

Answer the casting call to play a starring role in Los Angeles. Fred Otto has reserved a booth in LA and George Methe will be our booth manager. As soon as you register for the convention email georgerotary5260@aol.com so you can share the convention experience from the best seat in the house — in our booth! Customarily our annual fellowship meeting is held during Rotary's International Convention. Email your agenda items to: ottolaw@sbcglobal.net

George Methe, a past Assistant Governor and past Executive Aide to the Governor of District 5260, will chair our House of Friendship booth during the Los Angeles Rotary International Convention. (photo: 2005 International Assembly in Anaheim)

Fellowship Officers & Directors

- Chair = PDG Frederick J. Otto, Rotary Club of Chicago O'Hare, Illinois USA
- Vice Chair = PDG David C. Williams, Rotary Club of Wilmington, California, USA
- Treasurer = PDG Stuart Smith, Rotary Club of Loves Park, Illinois USA
- Secretary & Hall of Fame Manager = Polly Smith, Rotary Club of Loves Park, Illinois, USA
- Newsletter Editor = PDG Jack Mayo, Rotary Club of Austin, Texas, USA
- Booth Manager for Los Angeles Convention = George Methe, Rotary Club of Burbank, California
- Webmaster = Jack Selway
- Immediate Past Chair = PDG Dave L. Groner, Rotary Club of Dowagiac, Michigan USA